

Suture Course

A hands-on course

28 February 2012

Venue Bath, UK

For all abilities

Learning objectives:

- To examine the commonly used suture materials and their applications
- To look at needle design and the relevance to different surgical procedures
- To learn the common suture techniques and their applications
- To look at microsurgical instrumentation

Suture Course

Lecture Topics:

- Micro-surgical instruments
- Choice of needle
- Suture materials, their properties and their applications.
- Suture control and safety
- How to tie a correct knot
- An examination of the following suture techniques and their relative applications: Simple interrupted, horizontal mattress, vertical mattress, Continuous locking, Continuous mattress, Coronally positioned mattress, Sling and Vertical sling
- Sutures and their relevance to soft-tissue healing

Educational Benefits

- 5 hours of verifiable CPD
- Step by step instructional flash-drive
- Hands-on tuition

Speakers

Chong Lim
BDS MSC
Specialist Periodontist (UK)

Jonathon Schofield
BDS DPDS MFGDP

Suture Course

Venue

The Dental Implant Clinic
24 Newbridge Road
Bath, BA1 3JZ

Course Fee

£230 plus VAT

Payment terms:

Payment: £100 deposit. This deposit is not refundable if your place is cancelled within 28 days of the start of the course.

How to pay:

By credit card: Please ring ++44 (0)1225 448400

By Cheque: Cheques made payable to, 'Jonathon Schofield Postgraduate Training Ltd.'

Sponsors:

